

Sun, surf, sand and COLLIES! Life's a Beach in Santa Cruz!

The Nor Cal District of the Collie Club of America is proud to host the highly-acclaimed seminar:

The Lost Art of Breeding Fine Collies

Presented by John Buddie

Come and learn:

- How an artist and a breeder look at their subjects
- Moving away from linear thinking and understanding aesthetics
- Understanding the various breeding methods available and how master breeders of the past employed these principals to achieve success
- The difference in the ART and not the Science of selection
- Dominants and Recessives and how to put them to good use
- The show ring vs. the whelping box: how different are they?

There will also be Live and Silent Auctions held on the Seminar day.

The Best Western Seacliff Inn is reserving a block of rooms for our seminar attendees. Be sure to mention Nor Cal CCA to receive the group discount. Hotel guests also receive a complimentary hot buffet breakfast from Severino's Restaurant located on the hotel grounds. Reserve your room EARLY since summer is a popular time for Santa Cruz area visitors!

Friday evening Monterey Bay Sunset Cruise. Come join us for a two-hour calm-water excursion around the beautiful Monterey Bay on June 22. The cruise departs Santa Cruz Harbor at 6:00 p.m. and our boat and crew are provided by Stagnaro Charter Boats. Price is $29.00 per person. (Follow them on Facebook at Santa Cruz Whale Watching.)

Let's hit the beach! Those who will be staying over Sunday are invited along on a group trip to the Santa Cruz Beach Boardwalk. This is the last remaining seaside amusement park on the west coast and is home to the famous Giant Dipper roller coaster. www.beachboardwalk.com Admission to the Boardwalk is free. Come enjoy the rides, the food, the arcade and shops – all in a beautiful California beach setting!
